Black in wool goods and Black in silks is decreed by Paris and New York as being a leader.

Black is always good and for nearly every one; but this season it's way better than ever. We have planned accordingly.

WOOL GOODS.

Broadcloth—54 inches wide, strictly all wool, beautiful jet black, excellent finish. One of the most desirable fabrics for the coming season. A good value at $1.25. Our price $1.00 a yard.

50-inch Mohair—This is the cloth we have sold so much of. The extra width, finish and quality make it especially desirable. At 60c per yard at most places. Our price 50c per yard.

Imperial Serge—Strictly all wool, 42 inches wide and especially desirable this season for suits or skirts. As it is a finished surface it will not catch the lint or dust as napped goods. A special here at 75c a yard.

Many others to select from and every one thoroughly dependable, such as Panamas, Crispines, Cheviots, Cashmeres, Nun's Veilings, Albatross, Granites, Armures, Poplins, 42-inch Taffetas, Chiffon Panamas and Silk Eoliennes. Values from 29c to $2.50 a yard.

Most of the above materials we can show you in colors, also big range of shades in blues, browns, greens and reds.

Good Moving Pictures.

Edward J. Hadley's moving pictures, which were shown at two performances in the Rutland opera house yesterday, drew a large crowd in spite of the Labor day celebrations going on in other parts of the city. This is Hadley's fourth season here, and he has never yet failed to make good.

His exhibition is much above the average moving picture show, and the subjects he chooses are refined, artistic and instructive. The start of the Peary Arctic expedition, which left for the north about a year ago and which may not be heard from for two more years; the recent auto races at Ormond beach, Florida, in which a Stanley steam car is seen booming along at the rate of 120 miles an hour; life in India and a mystifying series of magic pictures posed by the famous Prof. Melies of Paris were the features of the show. Rutland Herald. At the opera house Wednesday night; tickets now on sale.
